Carolyn moved with the family to Iowa in 1941 and lived on farms until moving to Des Moines in 1959. She attended several grade schools including Cass #5 Country School in Guthrie County. In 1959 Carolyn graduated from Perry High School. She then went on to attend Iowa Beauty School graduating in 1960. Upon graduating beauty school, Carolyn had a long forty-three year career as a Beautician working in Perry and Rippey. She later purchased the beauty shop owned by Eloise Overman where she had made many wonderful friends. On October 2, 1960 Carolyn married Gail Monthei and the couple made their home in Rippey for fifty-two years. This marriage was blessed with son Marc and daughter Carrie. Carolyn enjoyed her children's school activities through the years and attending the Iowa State Fair year after year. She also enjoyed camping, working in her yard and collecting white milk glassware. She also had a large collection of lovely glassware items that she had received as gifts from her customers over the years. Carolyn attended the Trinity Lutheran Church as a child and was presently a member of the Rippey United Methodist Church along with being a member of the Amity Club. Carolyn was a loving person with a pleasing personality. She was a caregiver to her parents, siblings, and immediate family. This trait passed on to her clients, her friends, and acquaintances. She is survived by and will be deeply missed by her husband Gail, son Marc Monthei of Des Moines, daughter Carrie McCain and her husband Chris of Ogden, sister Shirley Hines of Perry, and other relatives and many, many friends. Carolyn was preceded in death by her grandparents Jacob and Martha Schriefer and Emil and Anna Boe, parents Carl and Grace Schriefer, infant brother Gerald Gordon Schriefer, infant sister Donna Mae Schriefer, brother Wayne Schriefer and nephews Donnie Jeffries and Kenny Hines.
