“ No one could ever ask for a better friend than Cindi. She was such a good person, who will be missed by all who knew her. She is now an angel in heaven who will be checking on us all from time to time. I will always miss our conversations we had in my garage, no matter what the weather when you would stop by on your way home, or the many many times at Hy Vee when it would take us forever to buy our groceries because we just could not stop talking. I miss you already!

“ Have so many great memories of Cindi. We had a lot of fun in our "younger" days. Her quick comebacks always left me laughing. Brings a smile to my face whenever I think of her. A smile that she always returned.
